

MLK Day On: where do we go from here?

Honor Dr. King's Legacy this January

Enjoy an inspiring "day on" hearing untold stories about Dr. Martin Luther King and help us launch three YWCA Study Circles on race in our community. This special MLK Day event commemorates Dr. King's life by highlighting his less commonly known beliefs that still resonate in 2011. This special event features:

- A community forum moderated by WUNC's Frank Stasio.
- Panelists including youth activist Sanyu Gichie; civil rights scholar Benita Jones; education activist Olga Matos; race/culture expert Mark Anthony Neal; and Muslim interfaith leader Jihad Shawwa.
- Unique ways to form Study Circles and workgroups to inspire action.
- Free childcare on a first-come, first-served basis. RSVP today.

ELIMINATING RACISM IN OUR COMMUNITY

Are you committed to racial equity and learning new ways to address current disparities in society? Sign-up today for YWCA Study Circles and strive to achieve the unfinished legacy of the Civil Rights Movement. YWCA MLK Day On is brought to you by the YWCA Greater Triangle, Community United Church of Christ, and the N.C. Social Justice Project.

Join us as we strive toward equity and justice for all!
